

FAIR HUNT

The other way to hunt...

Brush Hunt

Offer Nr.: 2528

The Hunting Areas:

There are three contiguous areas with a total of approximately 15,000 hectares. These are classic roe deer and small game hunting areas located in Eastern Hungary around the town of Gyula. The roe bucks have an average antler weight of 350-450 grams, and every year some bucks around 500 grams are also taken.

Brush hunts are organized for groups of 6-8 hunters targeting pheasants and hares. Hunters with their own dogs are welcome. Per day, a hunter can expect a pheasant bag of 5-10 birds. Accommodation is provided in a cozy small castle located outside the village. From there, hunters are picked up by the stalking guide for the hunt.
