Stag Rut in the Carpathians

Stag Hunting in the Carpathians:

In the Eastern Carpathians, in Harghita County, lies one of the best stag hunting areas in the Carpathians. A fantastic area for red deer, wild boar, bear, and wolf. The hunt for red deer is mainly carried out as stalking hunting, usually approaching the calling stag. A quick and accurate shot is expected from the hunter.

The trophy weights of mature stags range between 7 and 10 kg, but stronger stags are also taken annually. During stag hunting, it is quite possible to encounter wild boars or even bears. However, a meeting with a wolf during stalking is very rare. Hunters are accommodated in guesthouses or country inns near the hunting area.

Possible Hunting Dates: 15 September – 5 October – by arrangement.
